Dear FBCMWC,

Thank you for your generous love offering upon my retirement. Thanks also to those who prepared food, spoke kind words, sent cards, and attended my retirement luncheon. It has been a true blessing serving the Lord with you for the last 7½ years. The love, support, and commitment you displayed for me made it a joy to serve you. I will pray that you will continue to grow deeper in love with the Lord and it will be evident in your worship and fellowship.

A special thanks to Brianna for faithfully working with me in the worship ministry through the years, Pastor Trey for his servant leadership, the Praise Team and accompanists for their commitment in offering a sacrifice of praise, the choir for their dedication to the Lord in leading worship each week, and the whole staff for their friendship. May God bless you all.

Church Family,

I want to encourage and challenge you to attend our "Let's Tacobout Evangelism" training and dinner this Sunday evening at 5 pm. Before Jesus returned to heaven after the resurrection He told His disciples in Acts 1:8, "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." We still depend on the Spirit's power, and we are still pursuing this mission. Please make it a priority to join us for this event in order to be better equipped to share the good news of Jesus with your neighbors, your coworkers, your family members, or your friends. I look forward to seeing you there! I love you church family.

In Christ,
Pastor Trey

IN THE MEANTIME- A MESSAGE IN SONG:
"SOME THINGS NEVER CHANGE"

This week, our choir will present a beautiful anthem titled Some Things Never Change by Heather Sorenson. This powerful piece serves as a heartfelt reminder of God's unwavering faithfulness, offering hope and assurance to all who hear it.

The song reflects on the seasons of life, the joys and challenges we all face, and highlights the one unchanging truth: God's constancy. In a world where so much feels uncertain, the lyrics invite us to rest in His promises:

*Some things never change.
Your mercies are still new.
The things you said are true.
When everything is said and done,
You call me your beloved one.
God, you are the same.
Some things never change.*

These words remind us that no matter what life brings, God's love, mercy, and promises remain steadfast. As we share this message in song, we pray it brings comfort, encouragement, and renewed faith to all who listen.
